Authentication Scheme

Client   Website   API

→ Send Username/Password

→ Validate credentials with Website's API token

← Send "Valid" Response

→ Request organization information with Website's API token

← Send organization information

← Render organization
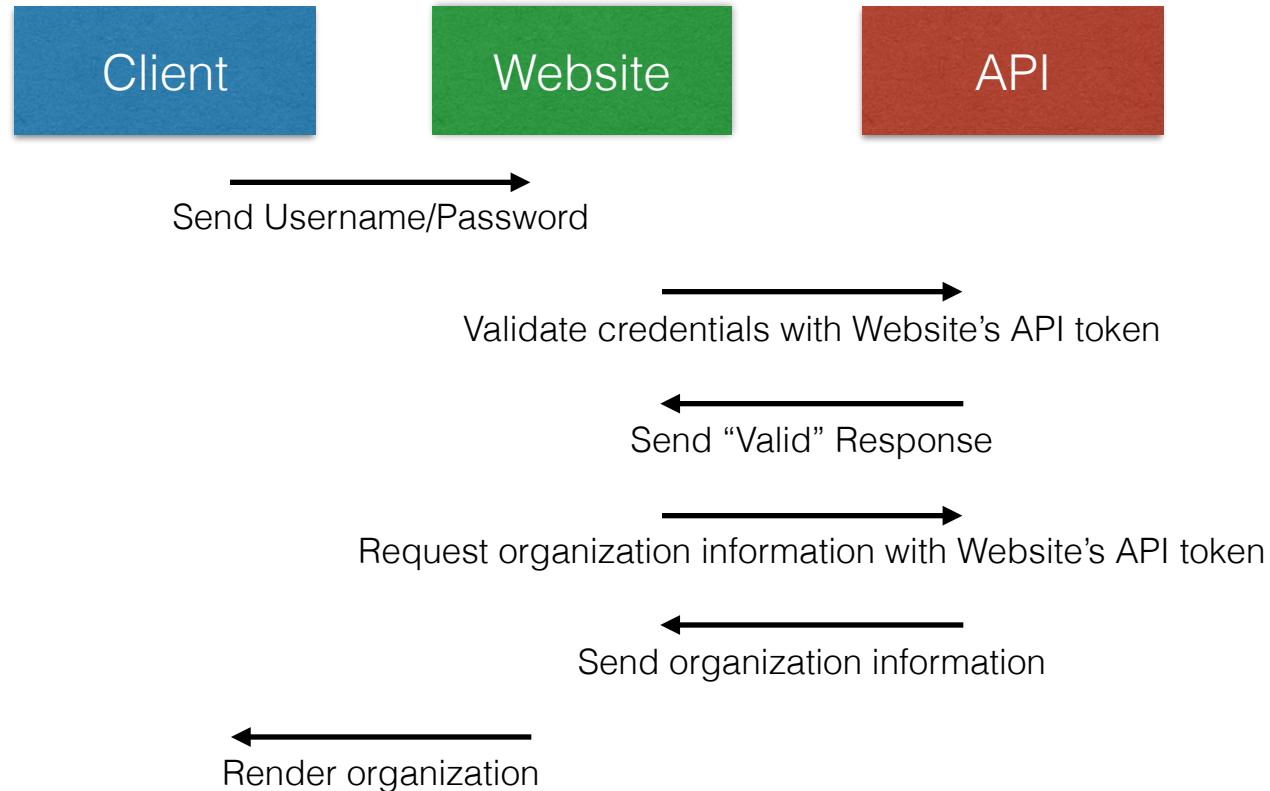

The website's API token is privileged to be able to access information for all of the clients. Session authentication is handled by the website. Essentially, the website acts authoritatively with the API on behalf of a client.